

MONCLER & RIMOWA

Moncler renews the partnership with the German premium luggage brand RIMOWA

July 2016 – The partnership between Moncler and RIMOWA is continuing with a customised set of luggages from the company's iconic aluminium range, the Topas Stealth.

The bold, many-faceted creative vision of Moncler and the extremely high-technological standard of the German brand are meeting once again to create a special version of the Cabin Luggage beloved by the world's most demanding global travellers. The range is produced in three different sizes. Silenced thanks to the Multiwheel® gliding wheel system, it makes for the utmost freedom of movement and extreme manoeuvrability. A true travel icon for those who want to enjoy a travelling experience at the very highest standards.

The new edition of MONCLER & RIMOWA Multiwheel® "Topas Stealth" is available with a new take on both design and dimension: Size 52 (32L volume), Size 56 (45L volume) and Size 63 (64L volume). Aluminium geometry in the colour "grey", design and outstanding practicality, incredible lightness and flexibility all acquire a soft, unexpected core thanks to Moncler, which has swathed the interiors of the cases with glossy quilting in a camouflage print.

The quilted and padded lining is also available in the two footwear bags and the two wash bags contained inside the suitcase, made by Moncler in the camouflage fabric purposely for this special alliance with RIMOWA. These accessories are extremely practical and have been designed specifically for transporting personal possessions and liquids in airplane cabins. On the outer shell, which is cut to be a pure volume, the enamelled Moncler logo and customisable name tag stand out.

MONCLER & RIMOWA cases will be on sale from July 2016, online on moncler.com and in select Moncler and RIMOWA boutiques worldwide.

ABOUT RIMOWA: RIMOWA is one of the leading premium brands worldwide for cases made from aluminum and the high-tech material polycarbonate, and it is one of the few manufacturers of travel luggage still producing in Germany. One could say that RIMOWA is probably the only German manufacturer with a history stretching back over more than 118 years with a distinctive, deep-rooted tradition – an exceptional position in the industry. To RIMOWA, ‘Made in Germany’ and ‘German engineering’ are synonymous with outstanding materials, brilliant technology and extraordinary product design, crafted to the highest possible quality. For decades now, the identifying feature of the collections, which are being continually optimized, has been the elegant and unmistakable groove structure of the case shells. The traditional company is based in Cologne and sells the luggage with the grooves in over 65 countries worldwide through selected dealers and its own stores, the number of which is being continuously expanded across the globe.
