AT PARIS CHARLES DE GAULLE AIRPORT

September 9th, 2019 — Moncler inaugurates its monobrand boutique at the Paris Charles de Gaulle airport T2E marking a further step in the travel distribution channel. With this opening the company strengthens its presence in the French capital as well as in the most important airport locations worldwide.

The new premise focuses on materials of exquisite quality including black brushed wood boiserie and white Arabescato marble for wardrobes' interiors. The floor is created through a sophisticated combination of white Arabescato and Grey Carnico marble, while the silk gray plasterboard ceilings are adorned with a wooden frame. These are the key elements that set the atmosphere of the boutique in pure haute montagne style in perfect keeping with the Maison's roots.

The boutique houses all of Moncler's collection lines.
